

Educational Sponsorship Program

Brookhaven Healthcare Services is dedicated to the success of our team. This is why we introduced the Educational Sponsorship Program. The program is designed for those in the healthcare field that want to further their career specifically in the therapy field. We have designed a program to give those team members the flexibility and assistance needed to further their career in therapy. If you would like more details about this program, feel free to contact us.